

Aaron Yong

HR Consultant / Facilitator / Master Coach

Aaron holds a Masters in HR & Training from Leicester University. He has spent 37 passionate corporate years in Human Resource. He is most passionate about people development. From this, he has a lot of corporate experience to impart. He is also a travel wanderlust and has crossed many cultures. Being a professional coach, he has coached many managers and leaders, as well as a Inter-cultural Coach to many expats for MNCs. Aaron is always up to date with current technology and the generational change of today's workforce. To keep his creative mind going, he does video editing.

