Introduction

Aman is a CERTIFIED TTT Master Trainer and a CERTIFIED POSH trainer, freelancer, Mentor and Motivator, he has a riveted grasp of the subject he delivers. He is a learner and firmly believes, that one stops learning only when one is no longer breathing.

A fitness enthusiast himself, he likes to encourage activity and motivate his trainees and mentees to be alive and find new goals, whether physically, mentally and spiritually. He stands by the statement that he coined himself "your body and mind are a bank. Whatever you invest and deposit now, will be your withdrawal later". He likes to socialize and hence finds the freelancing field to be quite an apt and liberating choice of career.

He chooses humour as his medium of propagation of subject knowledge and combines it with a flavourful dash of energy, a weaved story telling and theatrics, the right mix of dynamics that the audience identifies with. He uses his quick wits to dispel icy situations and caters to different age and professional groups in a way that they would grasp the matter comfortably, so much so that it has earned him the moniker of "ENTERTRAINER". Whether it's training or mentoring under graduates or delivering sessions on sensitive topics of sexual harassment and gender bias to corporate management, he handles it with aplomb.

Aman's Critical thinking, analysis, quick adaptability and a dominant black hat perspective, allows him to have more than one plan ready, for most scenarios. He is a patient individual and hence is quickly approachable. He likes to understand each issue and tries to bring out pro active solutions and likes to suggest best course of actions rather than wait for them to come to the table.

Educationally he is a post- graduate with Masters in both, Management (PGDBM HR and marketing, Symbiosis) as well as Commerce (M.Com, Osmania University) and is also an L.L.B, which makes him a lawyer, a practising one at that.

Professionally, he is an advocate and deals mostly on the civil side of the law, presently handling matters and providing counselling on the family front.
