

Mohit Limba

Corporate Trainer : Management Skills and Behavioural Development

Mohit Limba is a multitasking and incisive professional with 10 years of experience spanning across diversified areas such as Corporate Training, Communication, Education, Public Relations. He is a Post Graduate in Tourism and Travel Management from Indian Institute of Tourism and Travel Management, Gwalior, MP. He also holds Diploma in Aviation and Hospitality Management.

He is a prolific speaker and an experienced professional. He has been guiding individuals in reputed Corporates and eminent educational Institutions. In his modules he completely follows the experiential learning approach developed and based on his vast experience across the globe.

He had worked in various capacities such as Customer Service, Educational Consultant, Corporate Trainer etc. and has honed his professional training and management skills working with globally reputed organizations like:

- British High Commission, New Delhi
- Franklin Covey, New Delhi
- Hyatt Hotels Corporation
- Vodafone
- European Airline (WOW Air), Iceland.

And in Rajasthan with IMS Learning resources, JIET group of Institutions, ITC – Welcome group, JECRC University, JK Lakshmipat University. He is also a member of Indian Society for Training & Development (ISTD), New Delhi.

His trainees and colleagues describe him as a high-spirited result-oriented training facilitator, who prefers to keep training sessions a non-intimidating learning giving precision and simplicity utmost importance.